

Four stages.
Five days.
More than just a race.

Accommodations

Hotel accommodations in the Westfjords are limited, but camping space is available for all riders at the end of each stage.

The cost for campsites varies by location, but tents will be provided free of charge. Our intention is to ensure an even playing field, where riders cannot 'buy' an easier experience. All riders will be required to carry an emergency bivy, but those who choose to camp will not need to carry a full tent.

You are also welcome to search for your own accommodations, but you will be responsible for travel to and from the stage start/end points.

Booking Hotels

Hotel rooms have been held for 30-50 people each night and range from single occupancy to family rooms. Instructions for contacting and booking rooms for each stage can be found below. Remember to specify that you are booking as part of the WFWC.

We recommend you join the race Facebook group so you can coordinate room-shares with other riders to cut your costs and ensure we make the most of the available space.
