Arna Westfjords Way Challenge
→ More than just a race

4 stages in 5 days

That means there are 5 nights to be organized as well. For those nights you can book accommodations provided by the race, arrange a room share with other riders, camp in the race campgrounds (camping gear will be transported by the race) or if you are traveling with a partner or someone who wants to explore the Westfjords in a car during the day, you can book a campervan rental and sleep there at the end of each stage.

Race accommodations will be handled by Cycling Westfjords through Tímataka page.

When you register for the race you can book the accommodations too. You can also use your registration number later to access your booking and add accommodations later.

Accommodations are limited and must be paid in full when reserved. Room sharing is highly encouraged and we recommend purchasing a room and coordinating room-share with other riders through our social medias. It is also recommended to co-ordinate payment with other riders in advance of the race and Cycling Westfjords is not responsible for room sharing arrangements made or payment of room-shares.

If you are the owner of a reservation, you may cancel your reservation and be refunded until May 15 2025.
